Correspondence ending with petition Registered No 588 R dated 24th September 1900 from Mr K. Gopalacharlu of Srinivasa Mandiram, Bangalore.

Order thereon No 35-97-60/R1173

Dated Bangalore, 31st October 1900

Mr Gopalacharlu having applied for the grant of 12 acres of land at a nominal price not exceeding Rs 25/- per acre, under the Chamaraj Nala Extension in the Yedatore Taluk for the benefit of the said Mandiram and Charities he was informed that for the maintenance of the orphanage alone, Government would grant 10 acres of land provided he executed a Mutchalika to Government that he would render an account of the receipts and expenses of the orphanage annually through the Deputy Commissioner, Bangalore District, and provided further that he submitted a scheme for the proper management of the orphanage for the approval of Government and in fact held the lands in trust for the orphanage. Mr. Gopalakrishnaiah in reply states that he agrees to all the conditions mentioned above and that he and his successors will hold the lands only as trust property for the maintenance of the Mandrim orphanage.

He explains further that under the present system boys or girls are recommended by two independent and respectable gentlemen who certify to the poverty of the candidate or candidates that seek admission into the orphanage. On the production of the certificate, the candidate is admitted and sent to some High School in the City with a recommendation to receive him free of fees he is admitted there and undergoes tuition and the orphanage feeds him. His progress is watched and in cases where the boys are not up to mark after allowing them sufficient opportunities they are dismissed even: in some cases the Candidates are recommended by the Principals and Teachers of some of the Neighb. Schools and they are admitted into the orphanage:- the number is always limited taking into consideration the resources available: the aid of the Magistrates is also sought with a view to stray Children, if any, brought to them being sent to the orphanage: the system now adopted will be followed so long as he can be spared to look after its interests and wants and that he will abide by any other instructions that may be issued to him by Government on the Subject.
